13. Tournament formats and rules

13.1 WPA 9- ball rule with the 3 point break shot rule.

13.2 Stage 1( qualifying tournaments): Winner breaks.

Single elimination, race to 9 (Men's)

Single elimination, race to 7 (Women's)

All applicants are guaranteed to participate in the 1st chance (2 qualifiers), 2nd chance (2 qualifiers) and 3rd chance (4 qualifiers).

Stage 2(main event): Alternate breaks.

(Group round); 64 players, Double elimination, race to 9 (Men's)

48players, Double elimination, race to 7(Women's)

(Final round); 32 players, Single elimination, race to 11 (Men's)

16 players, Single elimination, race to 9 (Women's)

4 players from each group advance into last 32 final (Men's);

2 players from each group advance into last 16 final (Women's);

13.3 No seeded player in stage 1. Stage 2 seeded players: Top16 men players and women players according to current WPA rankings.

13.4 Stage 2: 2 from winner's bracket will be seeded into Final Round according to their results from group rounds, 2 from loser's bracket will be drawn randomly (Men's); 1 from winner's bracket will be seeded into Final Round according to their results from group rounds, 1 from loser's bracket will be drawn randomly (Women's).

13.5 There's a 45-second shot clock in operation at all times, with a warning given at 35 seconds and a countdown at the last 5 seconds. Each player will be allowed one extension(45 seconds) per rack. No shot clock for the final game once it reaches the hill-hill stage.

13.6 Each player can request a 5 minutes' time-out each round.

13.7 Magic sheet will be used to rack the balls with 1 on the spot.

According to WPA 9ball rules, at least 3 object balls must either be pocketed or touch the head string as a result of a break in order for it to be legal. Any combination of below(i.e. 1 object ball pocket and 2 object balls touching the head string, or 2 object balls pocket and 1 object ball touching the head string) is also legal.

If a player's break is considered illegal, opponent has the option either to accept the table as it is, or hand it back to the player who breaks. If the opponent accepts the table as it is, the player cannot perform a push-out. If 9ball is pocketed in a legal break, the player wins the rack. If in case of an illegal break, 9 ball will be re-spotted, opponent has the option.
